Dear Jim, [illegible] to Hudson 4/24/68

I have given the copy you got from Hudson so that I can use it in writing and dictating it. [illegible] you want to. I've started an O-K file in the new file I am creating [illegible] writing and have it filed there.

[illegible] to be grateful for bureaucrats who create phony records and write their self-[illegible]!

The first three actions in the grief these we can address definitively and other than the word report date, opposite it, and best of all, in giving us a handle from the word terrible, all the work I've done on these is appropriate to this.

I can see the bureaucrats' answer, but appropriate as a handle is the third "matter," "whether there is any new evidence which has come to the attention of the Department warranting the reexamination of Dr. King which should be dealt with by the appropriate authorities."

That has the traditional built-in circulation that all was honest and thorough in the original investigation.

Limiting it to "new evidence" in the dog-eat. This means in the files only and after the guilty-plea only.

I go also explains what has other explanations, the absence of any reference to Pepper as the evidentiary hearing and the civil suits. Among the latter there is "new evidence" in O.A. 71-1357 and with the AEA there can be the defendant it is made to appear that it "has come to the attention of the Department."

There is the fourth matter, never referred to. In their lingo it is "hot."

There is the other "response" in terms of the Department's motions, that there are matters of law ordinarily and many other arguments. The fact that the lawyers can argue in court that it has nothing, leave both are "new" to the Department.

Ugh.

Also now to find I have spotted that I have filed under "hot paper." You know I have always had that in mind, from the very first. They had come to look into it. This one has no serial, naturally. I also do not recall - and could have stated - the basis for [illegible] writing Belcamp about this and other matters which bury it 4/30/68, p.m.

We've got the ball what Lowe responded to sent.

Sincerely,
